"WORLD DAY AGAINST CHILD LABOUR." PROGRAMME

REPORT

On 12-06-2024 NSS Unit was organized programme of "World Day against Child Labor". The objectives of the programme : to focus world attention on the urgent need to eradicate child labour. It emphasizes the importance of recognizing and fighting child labor as a violation of children's rights and legal protections. World Day against Child Labour, we must commit to raising awareness and taking action against child labour.

IQAC, Coordinator, Dr. S.M. Tubachi, state that "Due to poverty and social injustice, lots of children are forced into labour at an early age, throughout the world. This further affects them physically, mentally and emotionally. It is important to be aware of this and work together in ensuring that these children are provided with a childhood that they deserve"

Principal, Dr. S.V. Badiger, addressed that "Children are often pushed into labour at the cost of their education, development and wellbeing".

NSS Programme Officer, Dr. M.N. Harogeri highlighted "the need to fight child labour. "Child labour refers to any kind of work that is unfit and inappropriate for a child's age, physical and mental abilities", programme was followed oath taking and vote of thanks and teaching and non-teaching were attended.
