Name of the Department	Department of Library & Information Centre
Organiser	Dr. Rudramuni Hiremath, Librarian
Name of the Event	Competitive Book Exhibition & Special Lecture on Preparation of Competitive Examination
Date	18 th October, 2023
Objective	The programme is aimed to generate awareness about how to read books for cracking the civil service and banking exams
Report	An overview of the State and Central Board and Banking Civil Service Exams will kick off the show. In this session, you will learn about the library's book collection as well as its online resources, such as its institutional repository and search engines. The seminar delves deeply into the exam schedule, exam patterns, the importance of studying previous questions, the structure of both online and offline exams, the allocated time for each, and the importance of reading relevant news stories, journals, and periodicals. The college's principal and IQAC coordinator are in charge of the program.
outcome	The student community acquired a thorough comprehension of the diverse categories of civil service and banking exams, the criteria for eligibility, efficient study materials, appropriate guidance from instructors and recently successful civil servants, preparation techniques, time management, exam format, effective utilisation of online and offline resources, interview formats, opportunities for advancement, and the civil servants social responsibility. The training comprehensively covered all the facets of government and banking tests. The comprehensive training facilitated the students in overcoming several aspects related to entering civil service and banking tests.
